What information about you do we obtain from others?

When you apply for a role in the organisation, we may obtain, with your authorisation, the following categories of personal data from others:

- References from previous employers or activities
- Medical assessments

Why do we collect this information?

We collect the information in order to assess your suitability for a role within the organisation.

We may use this information:

- To shortlist applicants for roles
- To arrange interviews and assessments
- To conduct interviews and assessments
- To contact referees or gather references
- To keep you up-to-date and informed in relation to your application

The legal bases for the processing of your data are:

- Processing is necessary to take steps at your request prior to entering into a contract
- Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which we are subject

From time to time, we may also collect sensitive or 'special category' data as part of your application for a role in the organisation. The legal basis for the processing of your special category data is:

- Processing is necessary to take steps at your request prior to entering into a contract
- Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which we are subject

Who do we share this information with?

We may share your personal data with the Citizens Information Board and with other organisations.

We attach at Schedule 1 a list of entities and categories of entities with which your personal data may be shared.

In addition, we may disclose your personal information to third parties:

- If there is a risk of serious harm to you or to another person or to property
- If we are under a duty to disclose or share your information in order to comply with any legal obligation
- If we are required to give evidence in court
- To get legal advice or to defend a legal right
- In the event of a disclosure relating to child abuse

How long do we keep hold of your information?

The time periods for which we retain your information depends on the type of information and the purposes for which we use it. We will keep your information for no longer than is required or permitted.

Do we transfer your information outside the European Union or European Economic Area?

No.

What are your rights with respect to your personal data?

You have the following rights:

- The right to access the personal data we hold about you.
- The right to require us to rectify any inaccurate personal data about you without undue delay.
- The right to have us erase any personal data we hold about you in circumstances such as where it is no longer necessary for us to hold the personal data or, in some circumstances, if you have withdrawn your consent to the processing.
- The right to object to us processing personal data about you such as processing for profiling or direct marketing.
- The right to ask us to provide your personal data to you in a portable format or, where technically feasible, for us to port that personal data to another provider provided it does not result in a disclosure of personal data relating to other people.
- The right to request a restriction of the processing of your personal data.

Where our processing of your personal data is based on your consent to that processing, you have the right to withdraw that consent at any time but any processing that we have carried out before you withdrew your consent remains lawful.

You may exercise any of the above rights by contacting the Development Manager or Regional Manager at any of the contact points listed above.

You may lodge a complaint with your supervisory authority with respect to our processing of your personal data. The supervisory authority in Ireland is the Data Protection Commissioner. The website is www.dataprotection.ie.

What will happen if we change our privacy notice?

This notice may change from time to time, and any changes will be posted on the www.citizensinformationboard.ie and www.slis.ie website and will be effective when posted.

This notice was last updated on 14 October 2020.

How can you contact us?

Our data protection contact can be contacted at any of the contact points listed above.
